

The BC Centre for Ability provides community based services that enhance the quality of life for children, youth and adults with disabilities and their families in ways that facilitate and build competencies, and fosters inclusion in all aspects of life.

Coordinator

Community Brain Injury Program for Children and Youth in BC

Classification: Social Worker Grade 1(b)

Status: Regular, Full-time

Salary Range: $33.01 to $41.16 Hourly

Pay Grade: 11

Employee Group: HSA

Start Date: June 11, 2018

Responsibilities

The Coordinator provides assessment and counseling to families in areas of acquired brain injury and the impact on the family, as well as consultation to the service providers and community groups. The Coordinator creates individualized service plans; funds, coordinates, and monitors the recommended therapies; identifies and/or develops, treatment options and resources for the child and family; and works with third party funding sources to access and coordinate funding allocation for the child and the family; and develops the parent newsletter.

Qualifications

- Master's Degree in Social Work and a minimum of five years working in a rehabilitation setting
- Registration with the BC College of Social Workers
- Knowledge of community resources, eligibility of services, and referral procedures
- Knowledge of characteristics of various stages of the rehabilitation process, physical, and psychosocial development, neurodevelopment, and family systems theory
- Knowledge of Family-Centred Practice and Evidence-Based Practice
- Knowledge of levels of care in acute and rehabilitation treatment, issue involving treatment options and protocols
- Ability to coordinate transdisciplinary services for children and youth with acquired brain injury
- Ability to develop collaborative partnerships with community agencies
- Ability to develop appropriate training materials for families, caregivers, and professionals
- Intermediate level computer skills with a demonstrated ability to work with computer applications such as word processing, and database software in a Windows environment.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate effectively with various groups, both verbally and in writing.
- Ability to multitask and meet deadlines while dealing with frequent interruptions.
- Ability to work effectively as a team with good interpersonal skills.

Working Conditions & Provisos

- Appointment subject to satisfactory completion of a criminal records check
- Physical ability to carry out the duties of the position

Application Information: To apply, send a cover letter and resume by fax or email as follows:

Valerie Upton
Director of Social Work
BC Centre for Ability
2805 Kingsway
Vancouver BC V5R 5H9
Fax (604) 451-5651
E-mail: Val.Upton@bc-cfa.org

Closing Date: June 23, 2018

*We are committed to enhancing our diverse workforce.
We thank you for your interest and advise that only those shortlisted will be contacted.*

Nurture • Grow • Thrive